1961 Introductions

BRIDAL SATIN—M. Ev. 36". This comely and most refined pastel is a very pale and delicately colored flower ranging from light cream to ivory white, with soft green lines radiating from the throat. Form opens rather flat with both petals and sepals slightly recurved and heavily fluted. Vigorous and recurrent. J. C. 1960. $25.00

DREAM MIST—M. Ev. 42". A medium sized, round, full formed flower, of quiet elegance, and a superb pastel of delicate pale ivory and cream, with sepals tinted soft peach rose. Petals are faintly tinted with this same rose, but so lightly that it is almost imperceptible. Substance and texture are heavy and crisp. Recurrent. J. C. 1960. $25.00

FLORENTINE—M. Ev. 36". A large and rare flower that presents an unusual and striking portrait of silvery peach mauve, high lighted and accented by individualized wide eyed spots of dark mauve. Crisp and delicately frilled, this whole flower is uniquely and enchantingly touched. $25.00

GLASS SLIPPER—M. Ev. 36". A lavish grower and bloomer, this plant abounds with vigor and presents large flowers of pale ivory with an overlay of elusive oyster peach. Sometimes during early spring a faint lavender tint is present, but only for short periods during cool weather. A very pale char-treuse shadow touches the throat of this formal, but graceful, highly productive plant. Recurrent. $25.00

LOVING TOUCH—EM. Ev. 30". A full overlapped, lightly rolled back, silvery orchid pink, with cool canary green throat. Medium small flowers crisply tailored and daintily frilled. Recurrent. $15.00

MUTED MELODY—M. Ev. 34". A medium large pastel in muted tones of buff melon, ivory and cream, with rolled back, sometimes, pinched, full formed petals. Texture is crisp and petals are frilled and heavily fluted. Strong vigorous growth with candelabra branching. J. C. 1960. $25.00

NIRVANA—M. Ev. 34". A large full petaled flower that is a smooth blend of rose and lavender mauve with a deep chartreuse green throat. Distinctive wide open and flat form, with the rather pointed sepals giving the effect of double triangles. $25.00

PARISIAN DAWN—M. Ev. 38". A smooth formal and delicately colored flower of pastel orchid pink, with a creamy chartreuse throat. Beautifully formed medium sized flowers with full, rounded, tailored petals. An extremely vigorous and highly productive plant. $25.00

PATRICIAN GRACE—M. Ev. 34". A large, formal, full petaled flower of soft ivory edged in pale peach. The subtle coloring of the petals is enhanced by a pale creamy canary green throat that lights the flower with a faint chartreuse glow. Recurrent. $25.00

SOUTHERN HERITAGE—M. Ev. 36". A large broad petaled, subtle colored pastel lavender over soft ivory. The light yellow green throat extends into the petal area thus forming a slight pattern. Excellent branching with handsome carriage. J. C. 1959. Recurrent. $35.00

TENDERNESS—ML. Ev. 36". A dainty medium small gently rolled back ivory cream flower with cool chartreuse yellow throat. Candelabra branched scapes present several flowers open at one time making an excellent garden picture. Vigorous and especially good for flower arrangements. $15.00
